The "Entrance of the Theotokos into the Temple" is a Christian feast day, celebrated on November 21st, commemorating the young Virgin Mary being brought to the Temple in Jerusalem to be dedicated to God. According to tradition, her parents, Joachim and Anna, fulfilled their vow by bringing her to the Temple as a three-year-old. There, the high priest Zechariah met her, and the event is seen as a prophecy of Mary becoming the "temple or tabernacle of God.
